ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Oct'r. 15 .- The market to-day is dull and quiet. But little is doing in Flour, and prices are nominal. The receipts of Wheat have somewhat increased, and to-day about 2150 bushels were offered, and sold at from 94 to 103, as to quality. Corn hes considerably declined, and 1160 bushels brought 56. Nothing doing in Rye or Oats. Country produce scarce

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Oct'r. 14, 1878. [Cattle are sold at these figures live weight. Hogs are sold at net weight, that is 20 per cent (generally) off from the live weight. Sheep are sold gross, that is live weight, or nothing off.]

Beef Cattle—Prices to-day ranged as follows: Best Beeves 4 12 a 5 CO
Generally rated first quality 3 62 a 4 00
Medium or good fair quality 2 75 a 3 62
Ordinary thin Steers, Oxen and Cows 2 50 a 2 75

The market at wholesale was more active, and prices a shade better than last week, but the retail trade was very draggy, and prices said less than they were last Monday, but with very little variation from Tuesday's figures. The tops showed less decline than the other grades, and there were considerable more of them than last

Mich Cows-The receipts consist largely of common Cowe; good ones are in fair demand. We quote prices at 25x$50 per head, as to sheep—There has been a fair supply in the market this week, and in most of the pens a fair though not at any time an active demand. There is some call for Sheep for the Eastern markets, but it is not lively. We quote butcher Sheep at 31-412 per 1b, few selling at either extreme; stock wethers 31-42; ewes at 250a$3, and common stockers 1 75a$2 per head; Lambs 4-52 per lb gross. Receipts this week 4720 head.

Hogs-The number of the receipts is fail agein this week, varying but little from the number last week and the same time one year ago. The last week and the same time one year ago. The quality is quite fair, fully as good as it was last week. The demand is only moderate in most of the pens, no activity being discernable in any of the yards. There has been a steady decline in prices since this day last week. We quote common and rough Hogs of whatever kind at 4½4½c, and best buttener Hogs at 4½45½c, few selling at the latter figure most sales being made at 4½45½c, few selling at the latter figure most sales being made at 4½45½c, few selling at the latter figure most sales being made at 4½45½c, few selling at 5½c. Few selling at 5½c. Few selling at 5½c. A series of meetings are also being held in the M. E. Church which are well attended. On Saturday and Sunday next Rev. Mr. Harrison, the well-known exercises.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES-Octo. 15, 1878.-For the Middle States stationary or falling baro-meter, warmer southwest winds, clear, followed by partly cloudy weather.

PERSONAL. - The New York Hera'd in its account of the preceedings of the Fitz-John Porter case vesterday says: "General J. S. Mosby, the guerilla commander of the Confed erate army, took the witness stand when the Fitz-John Porter Advisory Board met yesterday morning. Although the General's hair has turned gray the keen eyes are as bright and the spare frame as supple and nervous as in the unhappy days of the war."

Mr. Tyler, clerk of the St. Marc's Hotel in Washington, and son of John Tyler, esq , of this city, is dangerously ill.

Dr. C. T. Brockett, son of R. L. Brockett, esq., formerly of this city, passed through hers this morning en route for the north, with his bride, formerly Miss Bettie J. Erwin of New Orleans, to whom he was married at the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs yesterday.

DEAD BABY FOUND. - Mr. John H. Bartlett of this city, while walking along the railroad track yesterday, just north of the Four Mile Run Aqueduct, saw a singular looking paper package lying in the bushes near by, and on opening it found a dead white infant. The child was apparently still born. Justice Benjamin Austin, acting coroner of the county. was theirs friends and former customers, assuring notified and empanneled a jury with D. C. | them that they will find all goods as represented, Heiges foreman, who, after an inspection of the | and at prices as low, if not lower, quality conbody by Dr. E. A. Stabler, of this city, rendered a verdict of premature birth. The ma ternity of the child is unknown and there is no clue by which it can be ascertained.

RELIGIOUS. - There is quite a revival of religion in the colored Baptist Church at Salem. Over fifty persons presented themselves for the well known evangelist, will preach and conduct the services.

THE CULPEPER FAIR. - The about fair of the Piedmont Agricultural Society commenced but not quotably lower. Wheat—Southern dull, but not quotably lower; Western active and lower; Southern red 95x100; do amber 102x105; tique until Friday evening. It is understood that the display of cattle and horses will be 1002x1001; Dec'r 1012x1012. Corn—Southern very fine. On Thursday, the Alexandria

Upon the return of the company to their armory they were presented by Mr. Hugh Litham with a number of engravings, representing scenes in the Mexican war, which are to be used to decorate the company's arm ory. The present was accompanied by a short speech from Mr. Latham, which was appro-priately responded to by Captain Smith.-Three cheers were afterwards given for Mr. L. by the company.

> POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been tried since yesterday: Rachel Chase and Fannie Gibson, both colored, for disorderly conduct, were sent to the Workhouse for 30 days, in default of payment of fines. Mary Compton, for disorderly conduct, on complaint of Eyelina McCuep, was sent to the Workhouse for 30 days. Several empibus drivers, for dipriderly conduct at the A. & F. Depot, were made to pay cosis, by Justice Padgett.

AMUSEMENTS.-The grand concert by well known artists takes place at Sarepta Hall tomorrow night. The selections comprise some of the most exquisite gams of English and Ital ian operas, and the affair will doubtless prove a rare musical treat.

All of the arrangements for the grand tourament, at the Pair grounds, on the 23d inst., have been completed. A large number of knights are expected to participate, and the coronation ball at night will be a brilliant affair.

DEAD .- Mr. Wm. T. Mitchell, a well known and respected citizen, died at his home on Royal street, near King, this morning, after a ong illiness. He was, during the late war, conpecied with the Coofederate Quartermaster's Department. Mr. Mitchell was a member of Potoman Ledge of Odd Fellows and of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, both of which will attend his funeral at 3 p. m. to-
